

Hey, teachers and administrators!

Here's a free opportunity for your students!

AND MAYBE EVEN A LITTLE SOMETHING FOR YOU.

is hosting a local Lights, Camera, Save! video contest so teens can learn, and get excited about financial responsibility.

Help us spread the word to your creative students ages 13-18!

- Students create and submit a topical 30-second video
- Local winners are entered into the national contest
- Winning videos will be shared worldwide on YouTube

Three national winners will receive awards from the ABA Foundation to help fund their savings goals:

WE ALMOST FORGOT:

If one of your students wins a prize,
so will you! If your student identifies you on their entry form, you could win $300, $200 or $100!
